

By the end of this grammar and writing course, you should have a fuller understanding of the somewhat complicated English language. I hope the lessons and exercises will be fun for you, because I certainly have enjoyed creating this course to teach you grammar principles.

Contained in the two sentences above, in order of appearance of first mention, are:

1. Nouns: end / course / understanding / language / lessons / exercises / principles
2. Pronouns: you / I
3. Verbs: should have / hope / will be / have enjoyed / creating / to teach
4. Adjectives: the / this / grammar / writing / a / fuller / complicated / English / fun / grammar (second mention)
5. Adverbs: somewhat / certainly
6. Prepositions: by / of / for / to
7. Conjunctions: and / that / because
8. Phrases: By the end / of this grammar and writing course / of the somewhat complicated English language / for you / to teach you grammar principles
9. Clauses: you should have a fuller understanding / I hope / the lessons and exercises will be fun / I certainly have enjoyed creating this course
10. Simple subjects: you / I / lessons / exercises
11. Direct objects: understanding / course (“creating this course”)
12. Indirect object: you (“to teach you”)
13. Objects of the preposition: end / course / language / you / principles
14. Passive voice: lessons and exercises will be fun